About Serengeti Law

With more than 100,000 users in 160 countries worldwide, Serengeti is the most widely used system for legal project management and electronic billing. In recent surveys of both law departments and law firms it is also the highest rated system for the collaborative management of legal work. Serengeti includes online bill review/auditing, legal project collaboration (including documents, contacts, deadlines, and status updates), automated budget management, and contract management. In-house counsel also use Serengeti to generate reports which analyze trends in project inventory, monitor spending, track budgets, assess developing areas of exposure, and compare results across similar projects. With only an Internet connection and an hour of training, hundreds of law departments (from the Fortune 100 to companies with solo GC's) save both time and money by working online with all of their outside counsel worldwide. More information is available at: www.serengetilaw.com.

About the Association of Corporate Counsel

The Association of Corporate Counsel (ACC) is the in-house bar associationTM. ACC serves the professional needs of attorneys who practice in the legal departments of corporations and other private sector organizations worldwide. The association promotes the common interests of its members, contributes to their continuing education, seeks to improve understanding of the role of in-house attorneys, and encourages advancements in standards of corporate legal practice. Since its founding, the association has grown to nearly 25,000 members in more than 70 countries who represent over 10,000 corporations. ACC has 51 chapters and 16 committees serving the membership. Its members represent all of the Fortune 50 and Fortune 100 companies. Internationally, its members represent 42 of the Global 50 and 74 of the Global 100 companies. For more information, visit ACC online at: www.acc.com.
